AAEI's Transportation and Logistics Committee Presents ACE e-Manifest: Policy and Operations

Warren, Michigan

October 17, 2007

Don't miss AAEI's e-Manifest Seminar in Warren Michigan on October 17, 2007. This is a unique opportunity to hear from Customs and Border Protection (CBP), Canadian trade experts, and both Importers/Exporters and service providers all in one place! Learn tricks of the trade and CBP's view of getting through the border as painlessly as possible.

There is still space left to register for AAEI's upcoming seminar "ACE e-Manifest: Policy and Operations" at www.aaei.org. With a program this good, seats are going fast. The first panel of the day will feature our friends across the border, I.E. Canada and some of their members, and will allow our members to hear from a Canadian exporter, carrier and service provider about their experience with ACE e-Manifest. This session will also provide an update on consultations with the Canada Border Services Agency regarding ACI e-Manifest.

Don't forget that we have already confirmed our luncheon keynote speaker: James Swanson, Chief, Cargo Release Branch, U.S. Customs and Border Protection.

Space is limited, so go to www.aaei.org to register today. For any questions, please contact AAEI's Director of Government Affairs, Megan Wilson, at mwilson@aaei.org or (202) 857-8009 x 102.
